

KARL MARX

A catalogue celebrating the 200th anniversary of Marx's birth | 5 May 1918

In honour of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Karl Marx, on 5 May 2018, Peter Harrington is pleased to present a selection of his works for sale. Items deserving of special mention are a first edition of Misère de la philosophie in unrestored condition (item 2); a first edition of the complete run of Der Vorbote, which includes the first formal announcements for Das Kapital (item 4); a first edition of the first volume of Das Kapital (item 6); and the rare first Liebknecht edition of the Manifesto (item 8). We are also offering, in partnership with our friends at Antiquariat Inlibris, an exceptional presentation copy of Das Kapital, inscribed by Marx to César De Paepe, the leader of the IWMA in Belgium (item 5).

This first section is followed by a number of related works, comprising several early texts of significant influence on both Marx and Engels (Cherbuliez, item 24; Eden, item 29; Morgan, item 37); a number of political and economic texts which directly grapple with their legacy (Kautsky, item 33; Luxemburg, item 35; Robinson, items 44 and 45); and a series of biographical and critical responses to Marxism (Cornu, item 26; Dobb, items 27 and 28, Loria, item 34; Nicolaievsky, item 40; Popper, item 43).

We hope you enjoy browsing this catalogue. If you have any questions about any of our items, please contact our specialists Ian Smith (ian@peterharrington.co.uk) and Emma Walshe (emmawalshe@peterharrington.co.uk).

SECTION I:

WORKS BY MARX, AND IN COLLABORATION WITH ENGELS

Exceptionally rare first and only issue

1

MARX, Karl, & Arnold Ruge (editors & contributors). Deutsch-Französische Jahrbücher. Paris: Bureau der Jahrbücher, 1844

VERY RARE FIRST AND ONLY ISSUE, of enormous consequence, a double number which contains the first appearance of both Marx's first major work, Zur Kritik der Hegel'schen Rechtsphilosophie (containing his famous remark that religion is "das Opium des Volks"), and Engels's first work on economics, Umriss zu einer Kritik der Nationalökonomie, which was "of real importance in the formation of a distinctively Marxian stance towards political economy" (New Palgrave). Marx described the latter as "a work of genius" (When, p. 75). Also included are two further important early articles: Marx's essay on the Jewish question and Engels's review of Carlyle's Past and Present. 8vo, contemporary green ribbed cloth.

£75,000

[125807]

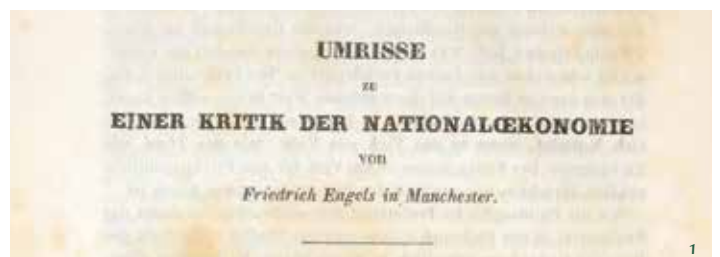

2

MARX, Karl. Misère de la philosophie. Paris & Brussels: A. Frank and C. G. Vogler, 1847

FIRST EDITION of Marx's caustic attack of Proudhon, "the bitterest attack delivered by one thinker upon another since the celebrated polemics of the Renaissance" (Isaiah Berlin), one of 800 copies. 8vo, a very good copy in unrestored condition, uncut and partly unopened in the original printed paper wrappers.

£25,000

[119971]

3

3
MARX, Karl. Herr Vogt. London: A. Petsch & Co., deutsche Buchhandlung, 1860

FIRST EDITION of the work which Marx took the best part of a year away from the writing of Capital to complete. It is an answer to the slanders against himself, Engels and their supporters which appeared in Karl Vogt's 1859 pamphlet, Mein Prozess gegen die Allgemeine Zeitung. 8vo, original publisher's printed wrappers, restored. A very good, uncut copy of this extremely rare publication.

£12,500

[86306]

4

First edition of Marx's announcements for Capital, part of a complete run of Der Vorbote, from the library of Johann Most

4
MARX, Karl. Advance announcements of the publication of Das Kapital [in:] Der Vorbote. Geneva: Verlag der Association, 1867

FIRST EDITION OF MARX'S FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENTS, both signed and unsigned, of the publication of the first volume of his magnum opus, Das Kapital, in the important and uncommon revolutionary socialist journal Der Vorbote, from the library of the German radical journalist and agitator Johann Most, who played a part in Capital's publication history and with whom Marx had a turbulent relationship. 72 monthly issues bound in 1, 8vo, recent purple half morocco and marbled paper boards. A well-preserved and complete run of Der Vorbote with an exceptional provenance.

£15,000

[120907]

4

5

Presentation to César De Paepe

5

MARX, Karl. Das Kapital. Erster Band. Hamburg: Otto Meissner, 1867

FIRST EDITION, PRESENTATION COPY FROM MARX TO CÉSAR DE PAEPE, the leader of the International Workingmen's Association in Belgium, inscribed not quite a year after publication on the verso of the title, "Au citoyen César de Paepe, salut fraternel, Karl Marx, Londres 3 Septembre 1868", and with one small pencil correction to the text, also presumably by Marx. De Paepe is considered, with Mikhail Bakunin, the co-founder of collectivist anarchism, the theory of which they formulated independently of each other in 1866. While De Paepe was an early disciple of Proudhon, he often gravitated toward Marx's positions and was counted second only to Marx as a theoretician of the IWMA. 8vo, contemporary half calf and marbled boards. Very few presentation copies of the first edition of Das Kapital are known to have survived.

POA [116802]

First edition of the first volume of Das Kapital

6

MARX, Karl. Das Kapital. Erster Band. Hamburg: Otto Meissner, 1867

RARE FIRST EDITION OF THE FIRST VOLUME OF DAS KAPITAL, the only one to appear in Marx's lifetime; one of 1,000 copies printed. 8vo, a bright, clean copy in contemporary diced half roan.

£100,000 [120703]

6

First edition in Russian

7

MARX, Karl. [Das Kapital, in Russian:] Kapital. St. Petersburg: N. P. Poliakov, 1872

FIRST EDITION IN RUSSIAN, the first foreign translation, of "the Bible of Marxism". Marx had been closely involved in the process of creating an edition for Russian readers, and corresponded often with the translators G. Aleksandrovich Lopatin and Nikolai Frantsevich Danielson. Vol. I went to the press in October 1871, Marx returned his proof corrections smartly at the start of November, and the book was finally published on 27 March 1872. 8vo, contemporary black pebble-grained cloth, rebacked preserving most of the original spine.

£15,000 [123133]

8

The first publication of the new preface, and the first appearance in print of the title “Das kommunistische Manifest”

8

MARX, Karl, & Friedrich Engels. Das kommunistische Manifest. Neue Ausgabe mit einem Vorwort der Verfasser. Leipzig: Verlag der Expedition des “Volksstaat”, 1872

VERY RARE FIRST LIEBKNECHT EDITION, marking a pivotal moment in the Communist Manifesto’s publishing history, containing the first publication of the new preface by Marx and Engels and the first appearance in print of the now canonical title Das kommunistische Manifest, adapted from its earlier iteration, Manifest der kommunistischen Partei. Historically labelled the 1872 edition, it was “actually produced in only a few copies plus a batch of a hundred sent to Engels himself ... Engels sent copies of this edition around Europe, in response to requests, as a model for foreign editions and reprints. Thus this ghost-edition became the progenitor of many real ones” (Draper). Small 8vo, original printed wrappers with green back-strip.

£25,000

9

MARX, Karl. Das Kapital. Zweiter Band. Hamburg: Otto Meissner, 1885

FIRST EDITION of the second volume of Das Kapital, edited from Marx’s manuscripts by Engels. 8vo, near-contemporary black quarter calf and marbled paper boards.

£5,000

[118737]

10

10

MARX, Karl. Kapitalen. Copenhagen: N. Cohens Bogtrykkeri, 1885 & 1887

FIRST EDITION IN DANISH OF DAS KAPITAL. 2 vols in 1, 4to, modern red buckram. A very good, clean copy of a fragile publication.

£6,250

[122813]

11

MARX, Karl. Capital. London: Swan Sonnenschein and Co., 1889

FIRST STEREOTYPED UK EDITION issued in a single volume, reprinting the original English translation of January 1887, which was published in two volumes in an edition of 500 copies. 8vo, a very good copy in the original red cloth, largely unopened.

£2,250

[119515]

12

MARX, Karl. Das Kapital. Buch I [- III]. Hamburg: Otto Meissner, 1890; 1903; 1894

UNIFORMLY BOUND SET OF MARX’S MASTERPIECE, comprising the fourth edition of book one, third edition of book two and the first edition of book three. 3 vols in 4 as issued, 8vo, contemporary half roan and marbled boards.

£2,250

[115402]

13

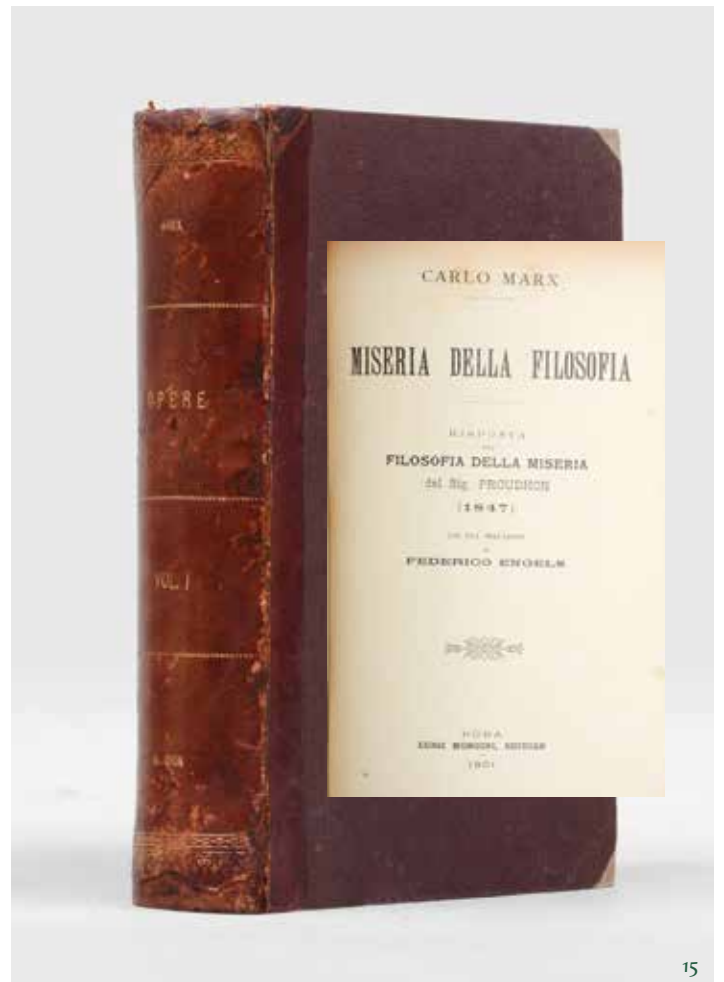

13

(MARX, Karl.) [Index librorum banning Das Kapital from Russian public libraries, in Cyrillic.] Saint Petersburg: Ministerstvo Vnutrennikh Del, 1894

Extremely rare example of a Russian index librorum for public libraries, recording the first – and rather late – attempt to censor the works of Marx, listing the first two volumes of Das Kapital, being the first edition of volume one in Russian (1872), and the first edition of volume two (1885). Among other famous works affected by this censor's ban are Tolstoy's Kreutzer Sonata in all editions, translations of various works by Herbert Spencer, John Stuart Mill, Emile Zola, and works on socialism such as The Eight Hours Day by Sidney Webb and Harold Cox. 8vo, original buff wrappers. A fresh copy of a scarce and fragile publication, no other examples traced on OCLC or KVK.

£2,750

[124940]

15

14

MARX, Karl. Die Klassenkämpfe in Frankreich 1848 bis 1850. Berlin: Verlag der Expedition des Vorwärts, Berliner Volksblatt, 1895

FIRST EDITION IN BOOK FORM of Marx's Class Struggles in France, prepared for publication by Engels, with his foreword. The articles were first printed in the journal Neue Rheinische Zeitung in 1850. 8vo, later dark red cloth.

£575

[116610]

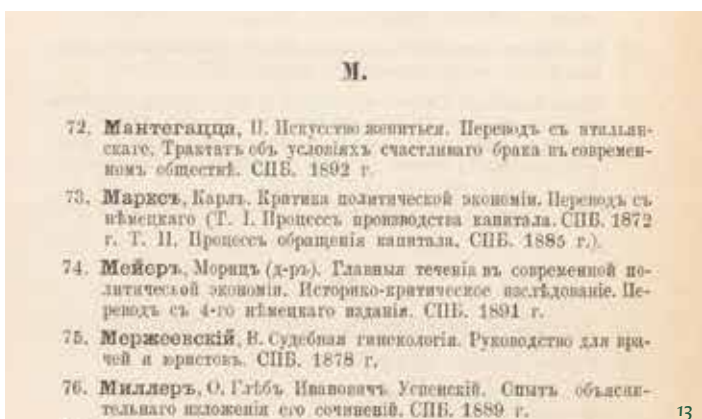

15

MARX, Karl. [Opere.] Rome: Luigi Mongini, 1899–1902

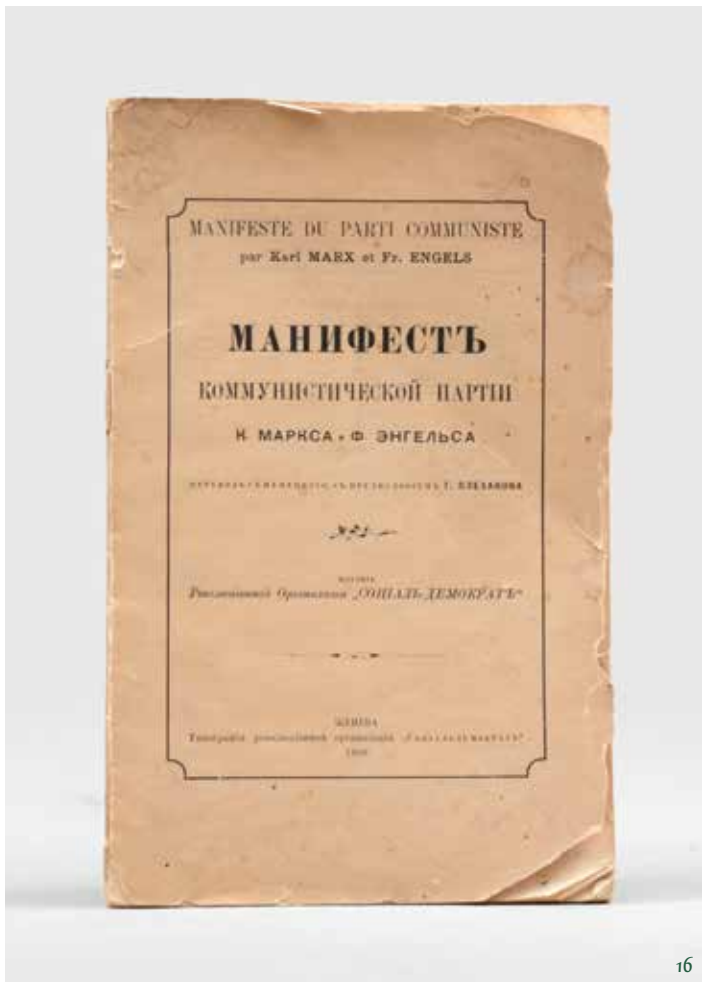

FIRST EDITION, a bound volume of 12 Italian translations of works by Marx, issued by the socialist publisher Luigi Mongini in parts. 8vo, contemporary quarter roan and pebbled cloth boards.

£2,250

[123720]

13

16

16

MARX, Karl, & Friedrich Engels. Manifest kommunisticheskoi partii [in Cyrillic]. Geneva: Printing Press of the Revolutionary Organisation 'Social-democrat', 1900

Extended edition of Plekhanov's 1882 Russian translation of the Communist Manifesto, containing Plekhanov's preface to the 1882 edition, Marx and Engels's preface to the 1872 edition, the prefaces of 1883 and 1890, and Engels's first and last notes from the 1883 German edition. Although the translation in 1869 attributed to Bukharin was the first into Russian, it was the second translation by Plekhanov which is generally agreed to be responsible for the widespread dissemination of the manifesto in Russia, earning Plekhanov the title "the father of Russian Marxism". 8vo, original buff paper wrappers, partly unopened.

£3,500

[120929]

17

MARX, Karl, & Friedrich Engels. O kommunizme, perevod s nemetskago [in Cyrillic]. Petrograd: Izdanie Petrogradskago Soveta Rabochikh i Krasnoarmeiskikh Deputatov, 1918

An uncommon post-Russian Revolution edition of the Communist Manifesto. Published for the Petrograd Soviet of Workers' and Soldiers' Deputies, it contains the prefaces to the 1872, 1883, and 1890 editions, together with Plekhanov's footnotes from his 1900 edition. 16mo, original buff paper wrappers.

£650

[121042]

17

MARX, Karl. Capital. Vancouver, B.C.: Political Economy Club, 1919

FIRST CANADIAN EDITION of Das Kapital in translation, consisting of the first nine chapters of volume I as well as Chapter 32, "Historical Tendency of Capitalist Accumulation". 8vo, original brown paper wrappers.

[120528]

19

MARX, Karl. The Civil War in France. London: The Labour Publishing Company, Ltd; and George Allen and Unwin Ltd, 1921

First Postgate edition of Marx's analysis of the defeat of the Paris Commune, this being the first reprint in England of Marx's two addresses to the International. 8vo, original patterned paper wrappers.

£100

[121041]

20

20

MARX, Karl. [Das Kapital, in Polish:] Kapitał. Warsaw: Nakładem Spółdzielni Księgarskiej Książka, 1926–9

EXTREMELY RARE SECOND POLISH EDITION of Das Kapital (first 1884), a new and thorough, though anonymous translation; the planned second volume never appeared, overtaken by events in the middle of the 20th century. Carefully typeset and printed on high-quality paper, this new edition introduced modern Marxist terminology into the Polish language. 3 vols, 8vo, vol. 1 in the original printed paper wrappers, vols. 2 and 3 in contemporary half cloth with marbled boards.

£1,250

[115423]

21

MARX, Karl. Letters to Dr. Kugelmann. Moscow: Co-operative Publishing Society of Foreign Workers in the U.S.S.R., 1934

FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH of correspondence between Marx and Ludwig Kugelmann, an activist and confidant of his, from 1862 to 1874. 8vo, original brown cloth, with the dust jacket.

£150

[124198]

22

22

MARX, Karl. A Contribution to the Critique of Political Economy. Moscow: Progress Publishers, 1970

FIRST EDITION of the second English translation of Marx's Kritik der politischen Oekonomie (1859), the “germ” of Das Kapital, edited and introduced by Maurice Dobb, the founder of Marxist academia in Britain. 8vo, original red cloth, with the dust jacket.

£125

[121362]

23

(MARX, Karl, & Friedrich Engels.) DIXON, Richard, & others. Collected Works. London: Lawrence & Wishart, 1975–2005

A COMPLETE SET OF THE COLLECTED WORKS OF MARX AND ENGELS: first editions, first impressions, all with the London imprint except for vols. 5 and 22 (New York) and vol. 26 (Moscow). “This edition will provide for the first time to the English-speaking world a practically complete, organised and annotated collection of the works of the founders and first teachers of the international communist movement”. 50 vols, 8vo, original red cloth, with the dust jackets.

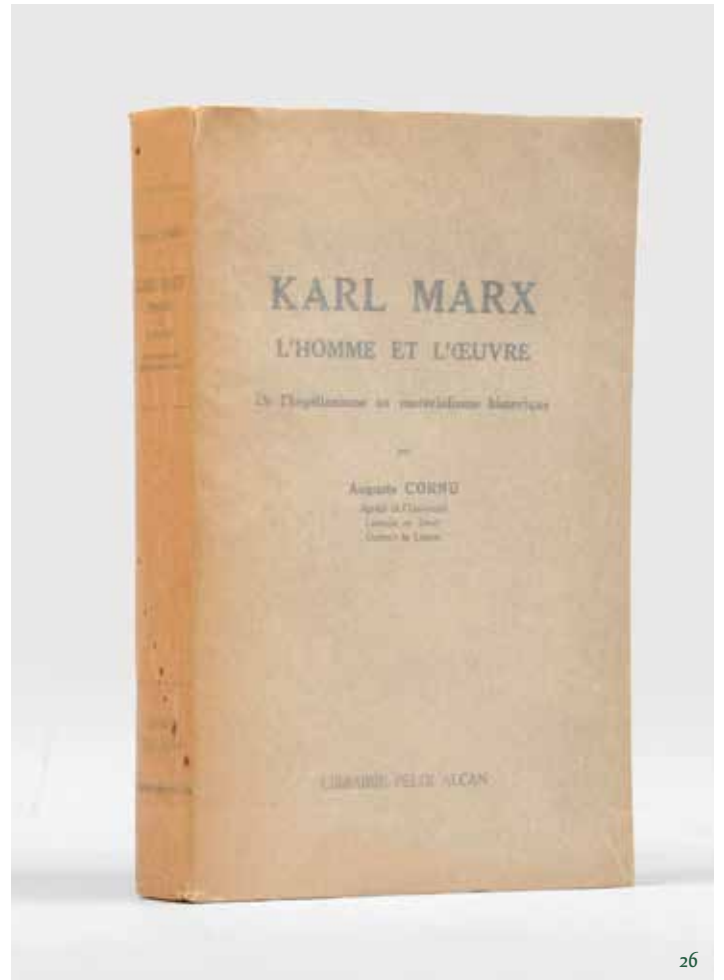

£3,250

[119043]

24

26

SECTION II: RELATED WORKS

24

CHERBULIEZ, Antoine Elisée. Riche ou pauvre. Paris & Geneva: Librairie d'Ab. Cherbuliez et Ce, 1840

FIRST EDITION of the work to which Marx devoted an entire chapter in his Theorien über den Mehrwert, writing that Cherbuliez's book, together with George Ramsay's Essay on the distribution of wealth, is the only one to have made the distinction (of great importance to Marx) between "constant" and "variable" capital (i.e. wage and non-wage capital). 8vo, contemporary marbled boards. A crisp, clean copy.

£850

[105364]

25

COLE, G. D. H. What Marx Really Meant. London: Victor Gollancz Ltd., 1934

FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original orange cloth, with the dust jacket. From the publisher's archive of Victor Gollancz, stamped as such.

£65

[96218]

26

CORNU, Auguste. Karl Marx, l'homme et l'œuvre. Paris: Librairie Félix Alcan, 1934

FIRST EDITION of the French historian's intellectual biography of Marx, examining in particular his school and university days, his time spent as editor of the Rheinische Zeitung, and his early collaborative work with Engels. Cornu's doctoral thesis of the same year was the first French academic work on Marx, and he has been called "the greatest, perhaps, of the scholars of the life work of Marx and Engels". 8vo, original grey paper wrappers, with the glassine dust jacket. A fine copy.

£150

[120761]

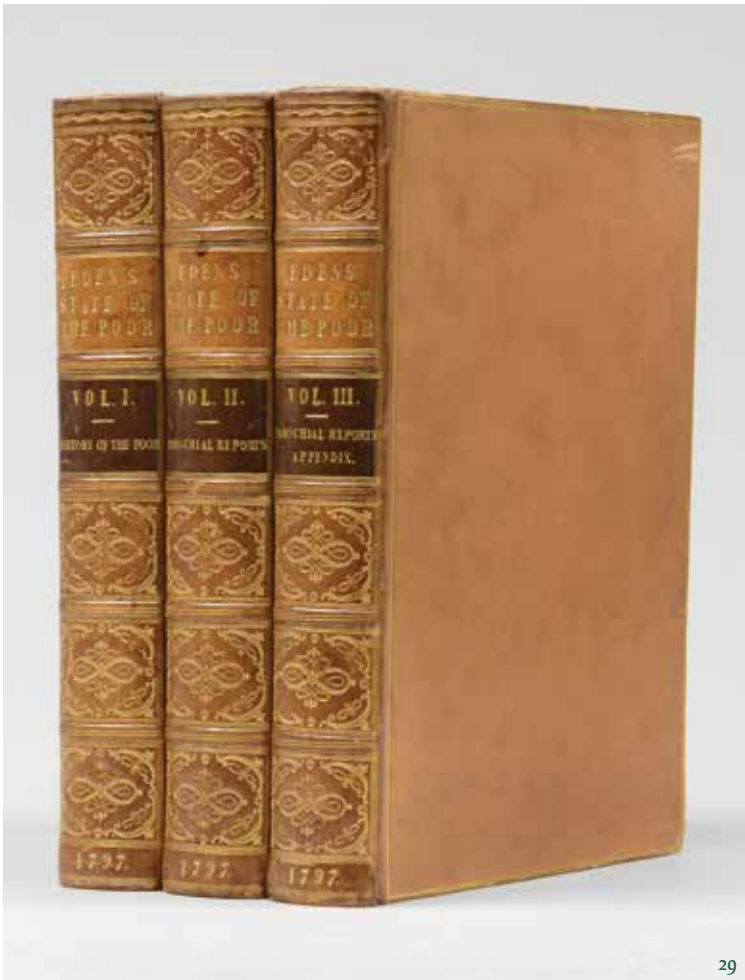

27

DOBB, Maurice. On Marxism To-Day. London: published by Leonard and Virginia Woolf at the Hogarth Press, 1932

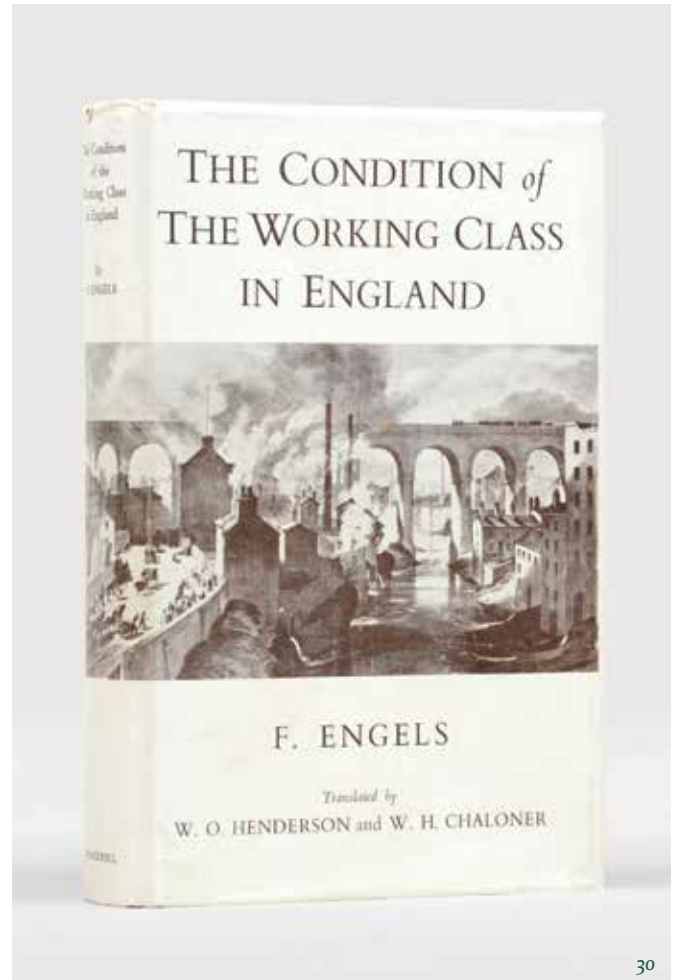

FIRST EDITION of this popular introductory work on Marxism by the founder of Marxist academia in Britain, printed at a time when the Woolfs were developing the Hogarth Press's profile as a publisher of contemporary political theory. It is the tenth of forty pamphlets in the Hogarth Press Day to Day series which was published between 1930 and 1939, and dealt exclusively with contemporary political, social, and economic issues. 8vo, original red paper wrappers.

£50

[121233]

29

30

28

DOBB, Maurice. Marx as an Economist. London: Lawrence & Wishart Ltd, 1943

FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original white and green wrappers.

£40 [124267]

“The only 18th-century disciple of Smith to produce a work of any significance” (Marx)

29

EDEN, Sir Frederick Morton. The State of the Poor. London: by J. Davis, for B. & J. White [& 6 others in London], 1797

FIRST EDITION of this classic of social and economic analysis, the fruits of Eden’s pioneering and privately-financed inquiry begun during the period of acute grain scarcity in 1794–5, which gives unrivalled statistical and anecdotal data on contemporary living standards. Eden was an adherent to Adam Smith’s system of natural liberty in economic affairs; “this led Karl Marx to claim that Eden was the only 18th-century disciple of Smith to produce a work of any significance” (ODNB). 3 vols, 4to, an excellent copy in handsome early 19th-century calf.

£10,000 [40703]

ENGELS, Friedrich, The Condition of the Working Class in England. Oxford: Basil Blackwell, 1958

FIRST EDITION of the translation by Henderson and Chaloner. The editors note that “the main difference between this edition and all earlier German and English editions is that we have given the exact original text of all Engels’s quotations, with one exception. A comparison between Mrs. Wischnewetzky’s translation (first published in the US in 1887 and in the UK in 1892) will show that many of Engels’s ‘quotations’ were garbled abridgements of the original”. The Condition of the Working Class in England, first published in German in 1845 and in English in 1885, is one of the seminal texts of Marxism. 8vo, a very good copy in the original green cloth, with the bright dust jacket.

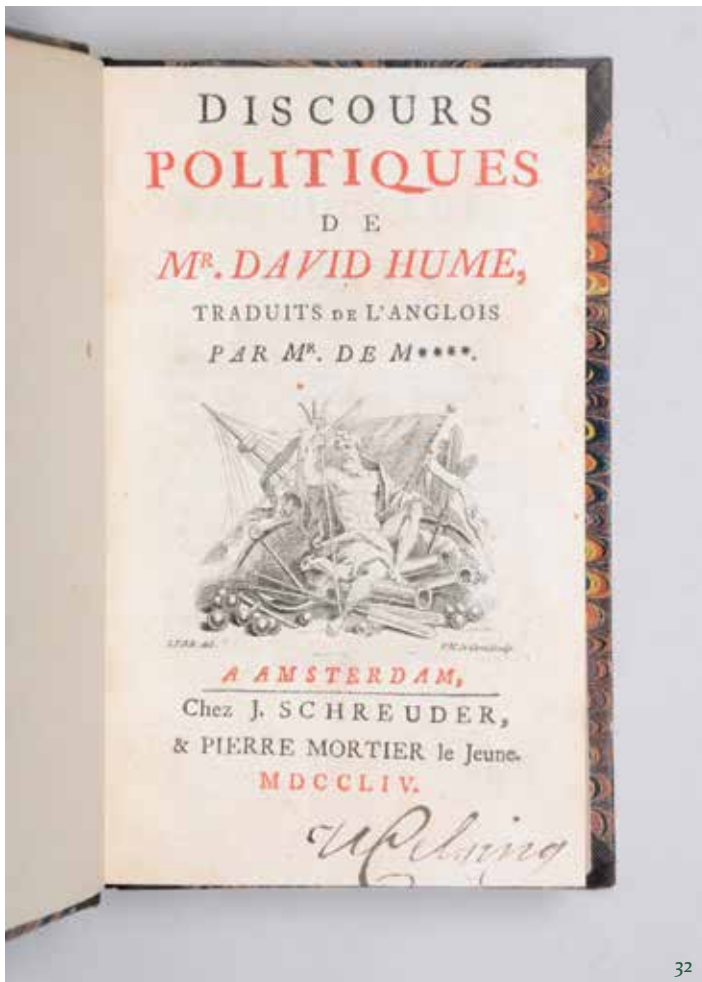

£175 [125360]

31

HOOK, Sidney. From Hegel to Marx. Studies in the Intellectual Development of Karl Marx. London: Victor Gollancz Ltd, 1936

FIRST UK EDITION. A leading work by the American Pragmatist philosopher Sidney Hook and a classic study of Marx. 8vo, original black cloth, with the dust jacket. From the publisher’s archive of Victor Gollancz, stamped as such.

£50 [96268]

32

HUME, David. Discours politiques. Amsterdam: Chez J. Schreuder & Pierre Mortier le Jeune, 1754-57

FIRST EDITION of this important series of economic publications, including Cantillon's Essai in the edition read by Marx while researching in the British Museum for Capital. Also includes works by Bolingbroke, Forbonnais, Goudar, and O'Hegerty. 5 vols, 8vo, late 19th-century ribbed cloth and marbled boards.

£3,750 [113450]

"The most important event in present-day economic literature since the third volume of Capital" (Lenin)

33

KAUTSKY, Karl. Die Agrarfrage. Stuttgart: J. K. W. Dietz, 1899

FIRST EDITION, PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR TO THE IMPORTANT FRENCH COMMUNIST PAUL LAFARGUE, inscribed "A son cher Lafargue, K. Kautsky, Berlin 3/1/99". The Marxist theorist's analysis of capitalism in agriculture is a book that Lenin declared "the most important event in present-day economic literature since the third volume of Capital". 8vo, contemporary blue cloth. An exceptional association between Kautsky, the founder of Die Neue Zeit and eventual executor of the Marx-Engels literary archive, and Lafargue, Marx's son-in-law.

£11,000 [118919]

LORIA, Achille. Karl Marx. London: George Allen & Unwin Ltd, 1920

FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH of the Italian political economist's monograph, first published in Geneva in 1916. Loria's early criticism of Marx, published directly after his death in 1883, prompted Engels to brand Loria an "unprincipled upstart" in an extended attack in the Preface to the third volume of Capital. 8vo, contemporary yellow cloth wrappers.

£55 [120989]

LUXEMBURG, Rosa. Die Akkumulation des Kapitals. Berlin: Buchhandlung Vorwärts Paul Singer, 1913

FIRST EDITION of the author's major work, her Marxist critique of Marx. 8vo, original printed wrappers. A bright, clean copy.

£850 [119491]

MEHRING, Franz, & Rosa Luxemburg. Kapital Karola Marksa. Warsaw: Ksiazka, 1923

FIRST EDITION of this abstract of Capital in Polish, exceptionally scarce, OCLC locating just 2 copies worldwide (both in Poland), written by Marx's biographer Franz Mehring and eminent Marxist Rosa Luxemburg. Large 8vo, original buff wrappers.

£750 [121153]

Songe's Socialism for workers are pamphlets published at the Madison Press and all have some useful information in them; Joyce's a good deal. Hyndman's Historic Basis states in some of its chapters the Marxian theory; Grundrisse carries it out further. Hyndman's book has much information in it; but is ill put together, & not always accurate.

On the whole tough as the ~~work~~ job is you ought to read Marx if you can: up to date he is the only completely scientific Economist on our side.

Autling is giving a series of lessons at South Place Institute under the auspices of the Socialist League; which are very good. They are on Marx really: the 4th lesson is next Thursday at 8.30 pm. If you could attend these I think you would be pleased: they would make reading Marx comparatively easy to you.

No apology is necessary to me, I am very glad to answer your question.

Yours faithfully
William Morris

38

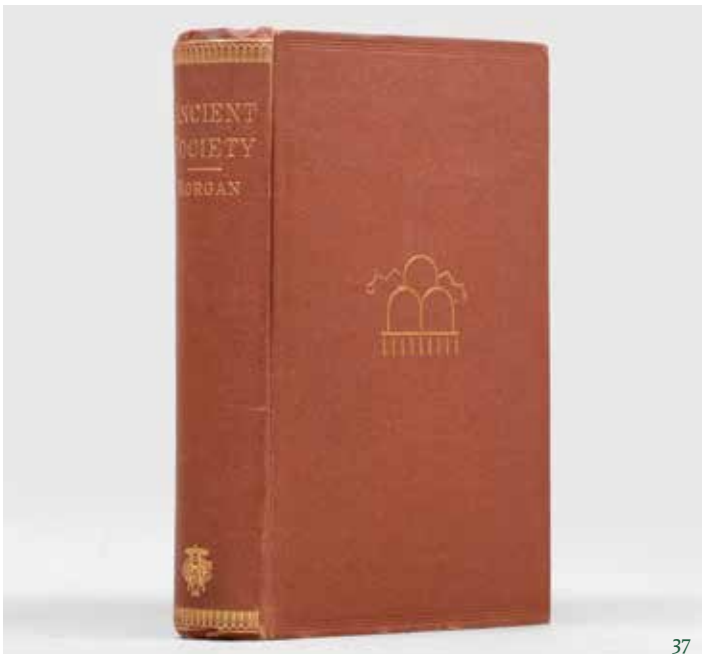

37

MORGAN, Lewis Henry. Ancient Society. New York: Henry Holt and Company, 1877

FIRST EDITION of the leading American anthropologist's magnum opus, a major influence on Marx and Engels. Marx had intended a full length response but died before it could be produced, while Engels based his Origin of the Family, Private Property and the State on Morgan's work, believing that Morgan's studies provided evidence for his own interpretation of history. 8vo, original orange cloth.

£675

[124467]

37

"If you read German or French, you should tackle Karl Marx Das Capital at once ... [Marx] is the only completely scientific economist on our side"

38

MORRIS, William. Autograph letter signed to an unknown correspondent ("Dear Sir"), recommending Marx's Das Kapital. Kelmscott House: 28 February, 1885

AN EARNEST AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, written by Morris at the height of his socialist activities, making obvious his admiration for Marx's writings, discussing the merits of various editions of Das Kapital, as well as recommending several critical publications on Marxist theory and a series of lectures delivered by Edward Aveling under the auspices of The Socialist League which "would make reading Marx comparatively easy to you". He advises: "If you read German or French, you should tackle Karl Marx Das Capital at once. The French translation is good ... On the whole tough as the job is you ought to read Marx if you can: up to date he is the only completely scientific economist on our side". Just the previous year Morris had had his own copy of the first edition in French sumptuously bound by Thomas James Cobden-Sanderson in elaborately gilt turquoise goatskin. 3 pages, 8vo, on Kelmscott House headed notepaper.

£3,750

[126040]

39

39

MOSCOW SOVIET OF WORKERS AND RED ARMY DEPUTIES. Sbornik" pamiati Karla Marksa. Vypusk" 2 (Collection in memory of Karl Marx. Issue 2) [In Cyrillic.] Moscow: Knizhnyi sklad" i magazin" M.S.R.D., 1918

An exceedingly rare edition in book form, no copies listed on OCLC or KVK, comprising 20 articles celebrating Marx's jubilee on 5 May 1918. Titles include "K. Marx as a philosopher"; "K. Marx and the petty bourgeoisie", and "K. Marx and the woman question". 8vo, original pink printed paper wrappers, unopened.

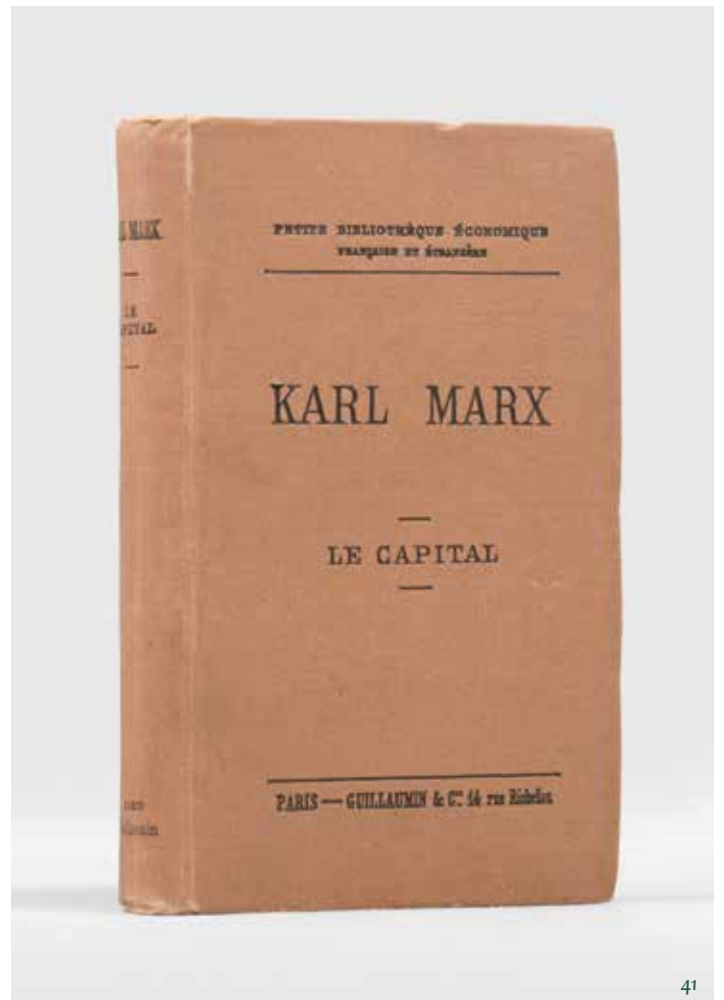

£450 [121052]

40

NICOLAIEVSKY, Boris, & Otto Maenchen-Helfen. Karl Marx: Man and Fighter. Philadelphia & London: J. P. Lippincott Company, 1936

FIRST EDITION. Boris Nicolaievsky and Otto Maenchen-Helfen were two of the most prominent Marxist academics of their day. Their highly readable biography was based on materials in private archives in Berlin and Dresden, which had only recently been made available to Marxist scholars. 8vo, original red cloth, with the dust jacket.

£75 [124843]

41

PARETO, Vilfredo. Le Capital. Paris: Guillaumiin & Cie., 1893

FIRST EDITION of this selection from Marx's Capital, published in the series Petite bibliothèque économique française et étrangère, the product of a surprising collaboration. Lafargue, a founder of the French socialist party and later Marx's son-in-law, of all the French Marxist writers closest to German orthodoxy, made the selection of the extracts. Pareto, whose economic and sociological views by no means coincided with those of Marx, provided the lengthy introduction. Small 8vo, original light brown ribbed cloth.

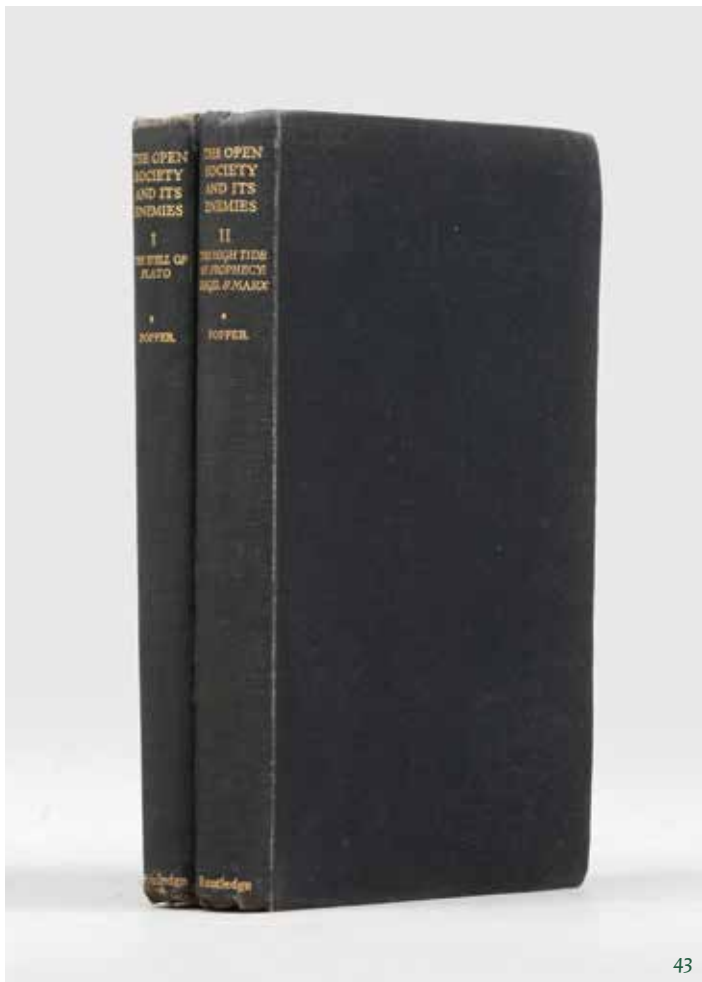

£1,500 [122588]

PLECHANOFF, George. Anarchism and Socialism. London: The Twentieth Century Press, Limited, 1906

An early edition in English of the Marxist theoretician's important analysis of anarchist strategy, first translated into English by Aveling – the socialist writer and activist, and daughter of Marx – in 1895. George Plechanoff, or Georgi Valentinovich Plekhanov as he is more commonly known, is credited with establishing the social-democratic movement in Russia. 8vo, original red cloth.

£100 [119651]

43

POPPER, K. R. The Open Society and Its Enemies. London: George Routledge & Sons, Ltd, 1945

FIRST EDITION of the author's influential first book, the second volume of which "savaged Hegel and Marx for claiming to have arrived at the definitive truth about the future of humanity and the political implications of that truth" (ODNB). 2 vols, 8vo, original black cloth.

£1,500 [120764]

ROBINSON, Joan. An Essay on Marxian Economics. London: Macmillan and Co., Limited, 1942

FIRST EDITION. This study was the culmination of Robinson's increasing interest in Marxian economics throughout the 1930s. 8vo, original red cloth, with the dust jacket.

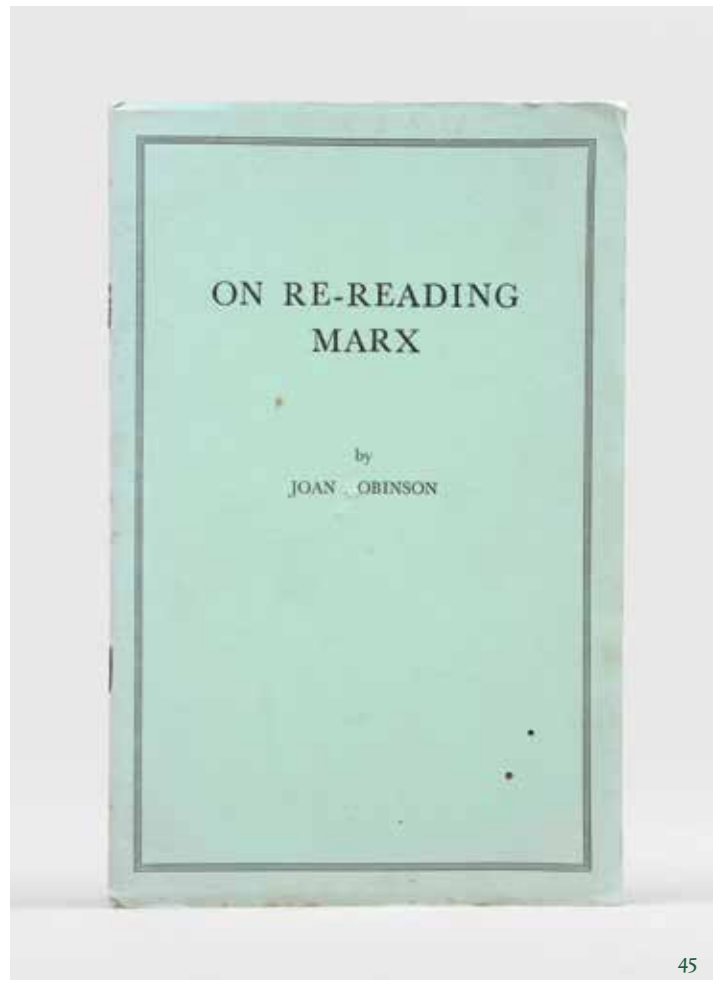

£75 [125573]

45

ROBINSON, Joan. On Re-Reading Marx. Cambridge: Students' Bookshops Ltd, 1953

FIRST EDITION of Robinson's pamphlet collection of three short polemical essays, "written in a hilarious mood after reading Piero Sraffa's Introduction [to Ricardo's Principles] which caused me to see that the concept of the rate of profit on capital is essentially the same in Ricardo, Marx, Marshall and Keynes". 8vo, original green wrappers. A bright copy.
